BLAINE FAILS TO CARRY COUNTY

Every One of Eleven Congressmen Is Re-elected on Face of Early Returns

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Nov. 4.—
Wisconsin has gone republican. Returns so far available show the election of the entire G. O. P. state ticket, a United States senator and probably eight congressmen, over candidates endorsed variously by Senator La Follette, Colonel Roosevelt and the Wilson administration.
Emanuel L. Philipp, republican candidate for governor, appears to have been elected over Judge John C.
Karel, democrat, by at least 30,000.

Ends Wisconsin Idea—Philipp
MILWAUKEE, Nov. 4.—
In a statement issued today,
Governor-elect Philipp said Tuesday's election was "a complete repudiation of the much heralded 'Wisconsin idea.'"
"Our people have had enough of experimental legislation," he added, "and have returned to a more conservative system."

John J. Blaine, independent candidate, who received the endorsement of Roosevelt and for whom La Follette campaigned the state, seems to have been unable to carry a single county.

Governor Francis E. McGovern, republican, apparently is elected to the United States senate for a term of six years to succeed Isaac Stephenson, over State Senator Paul O. Husting, democrat, by 20,000.

Everyone of the eleven congressmen seem to have been re-elected.
The only districts where there appears to be any doubt as to the outcome are the Fourth and Fifth, Milwaukee county. Here the socialists refuse to concede that their candidate, Victor L. Berger in the Fifth, and Winfield R. Gaylord in the Fourth, are beaten. However, the congressional lineup appears to be as follows:

First, H. A. Cooper, Racine, republican; Second, M. E. Burke, Beaver Dam, democrat; Third, J. M. Nelson, Madison, republican; Fourth, W.
J. Cary, Milwaukee, republican;
Fifth, W. H. Stafford, Milwaukee, republican; Sixth, M. K. Reilly, Fond du Lac, democrat; Seventh, J. J.
Esch, La Crosse, republican; Eighth,
E. E. Browne, Waukegan, republican;
Ninth, T. F. Konop, Kewaunee, democrat; Tenth, J. A. Frear, Hudson, republican; Eleventh, L. L. Lenroot, Superior, republican.

Practically complete returns in the Fourth and Fifth Congressional districts, Milwaukee county, show that the socialists were defeated by a narrow margin. Victor L. Berger, former socialist congressman from the fifth, appears to have been beaten by William H. Stafford, republican, by 3,000. Winfield R. Gaylord, socialist candidate from the fourth, is 800 behind William J. Cary, republican.

The socialists appear to have elected the district attorney, sheriff, a state senator and four state representatives in Milwaukee county. The other county offices are still in doubt.

DEMOCRAT CHOSEN GOPHER GOVERNOR

Congressman Hammond Is Overwhelmingly Elected in Republican Minnesota

ST. PAUL, Minn., Nov. 4.—Minnesota, bulwark of republican strength, overwhelmingly elected a democratic governor, W. S. Hammond, present congressman. The election of a democrat, which has occurred only twice before in the history of the state, is particularly significant because Hammond, until a few days ago, was unable to take part in the campaign, because of legislative duties at Washington.
Indications this morning were that the plurality of Hammond over
W. E. Lee would be about 20,000.

ALLIED SQUADRON IS BOMBARDING FORTS AT DARDANELLES ENTRANCE

WORKS DEFENDED BY ARTILLERYMEN OF GERMAN ARMY

Explosion of Magazine in Fort Reported and Attacking Vessel Said to Have Been Damaged

ROME, Nov. 4.—Reports received here declare that the bombardment of the Dardanelles begun yesterday by the combined Franco-British fleet of battleships, battle cruisers and armored cruisers continue with apparently heavy damage being inflicted upon the forts. Several explosions are reported, especially in Hollis fort, where it is believed that a shell set fire to a powder magazine.

According to the reports reaching here by way of Athens the forts are being defended by German gunners, who reached Constantinople early last week. These men are said to be first line German artillerymen commanded by officers of high rank.

One of the attacking squadron was reported to have been hit by a shell from the forts and badly damaged by this attack, is without confirmation.

PAYS BACK BET

POUGHKEEPSIT, N. Y., Nov. 4.—
The first freak election bet was paid here this afternoon when William Reiser, 39, stood on the steps of the city hall and entertained a crowd of more than 1,000 persons by playing a cornet for an hour. Reiser

FORMER CONGRESSMEN GO BACK

Cannon, McKinley, Longworth and Sulloway
Are Returned to the House

WASHINGTON, Nov. 4.—Upon the face of country-wide returns up to 11 o'clock today, the republicans take neither the house nor the senate from the democrats. Although the majority by which the house has been controlled has been greatly reduced, the senate remains safely democratic. It appears that the democrats have a chance of gaining at least three members in the senate. The contests in Kansas, Illinois, California and Utah

Neither Has Control?

WASHINGTON, Nov. 4.— Neither republican nor democrat will control the next house of congress, the republican national congressional committee announced this afternoon.
"We claim the election of 213 republicans, four progressives, one independent, and two socialists, to the next house of representatives," ran the statement,
"while the remainder of the seats will be filled by democrats, 215."

are still in doubt. James H. Moyle, fusion candidate, is leading Reed Smoot, republican, in Utah, with returns incomplete and the chance of his election appeared favorable. The Sherman-Sullivan race in Illinois is a neck and neck affair. In Kansas the race for the senate is three-cornered, with Murdock, progressive; Curtis, republican, and Neely, democrat, apparently having equal chances of election.

During the present session of congress, the senate representation has been: Democrats, 52; republicans, 43; progressive, one.
Although the republican landslide was considered by administrative authorities today as a "cataclysm," they professed the belief that the presidential results in 1916 will spell only Woodrow Wilson.

The afternoon returns dispelled some of the gloom that had previously surrounded democratic leaders during the night. Doubts concerning the democratic control of the house were swept away. They expect now leadership of at least twenty-five.

Call It "Blessing"

Friends of President Wilson called this the "greatest blessing" of the situation. In the midst of sweeping republican victories, leaders today said that a business boom is on the way and that the democrats will reap its fruits in 1916.

A high administration official explained that the republican victories were not entirely unexpected, although it was admitted they went further than any of the advance predictions.

Leaders added that the administration was "caught in the jam" at the weakest point of its four years' control of the country. They said a business depression, which began before the European war opened and which they admit was furthered by tariff readjustments, would pass away during the coming two years.
They said a business boom is on the way which will sweep the democrats back into stronger power than ever in the 1916 campaign.

Democrats Keep Control

NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—Late returns this afternoon from all parts of the country emphasize the falling off in the progressive party; the rejuvenation of the republican party, to whose fold most of the deserters of 1912 have returned, and the fact that the democrats still control the nation's affairs.

The democratic majority in the house dwindled to about 19, although by districts where the official count must decide, it may be increased to 27. The socialists gained one seat in New York and claim two in Wisconsin. The progressives elected a representative from democratic Louisiana, and among the "comeback" contingent are many of the old line republicans who vacated seats in the house two years ago.

May Gain Five Toga

The democrats may gain five seats in the United States senate.
They retained all of their seats and

Clerk of Court—Frank Aiken.
Register of Deeds—A. E. Thompson.

County Sheriff—George Ritter.*
*The vote between Schulze and Jolivet for county clerk and Derr and Ritter for sheriff is so close that friends of Schulze and Derr, whom the figures seem to defeat, maintain they may be elected. The republican headquarters claim Derr's election by six votes and Schulze's by two.

Big gains were made in La Crosse for the republican county ticket at Tuesday's election, the returns showing that the republicans have secured the clerk of court and district attorney from the democrats and retained Andrew E. Thompson as register of deeds.

Not for many years have the contests for county offices been so close.
Hastily added figures give Jolivet a lead of twelve over his republican opponent Schulze while Derr loses to Ritter by twenty-two votes.

Andrew E. Thompson had no difficulty in keeping ahead of his democratic opponent, Morgan Evans, Bangor, and Frank Aiken, due to what appeared to be a cut of Hunt by city democrats and enormous republican support in the county, landed the court clerkship by 2,827 to 2,609.

The surprise of the campaign was the remarkable run made by Attorney Otto Schlabach, republican, against D. S. Law, democrat, for district attorney. Friends of Law throughout the campaign had no doubt but that he would win. With all the returns in last night, with the exception of the Eighth and Eighteenth wards, Law's candidacy became hopeless, the Eighth and Eighteenth not containing enough regular democratic votes to make up the big lead of Schlabach. The final figures give Law 2,700 and Schlabach 3,009. Schlabach led the county ticket.

Ole Lunde, republican, defeated
William Garbers, democrat, 2,831 to 2,622.
The vote by towns, villages, cities and wards is contained in the table printed on the sixth page of The Tribune.

Let's Show Sparta Our School Spirit

The La Crosse High school football team is going into its most important football game
Saturday, against Sparta. La Crosse chances for the state title depend on the game.

Sparta is coming down 500 strong, with two bands, on a special train. Enthusiasm in Sparta is at fever pitch. They are anxious to repeat their victory of last year.

Enthusiasm at the local High school is equally strong.
La Crosse is out to wipe out last year's defeat.

La Crosse should turn out every possible supporter for its high school team. The eleven deserves all the encouragement the city can give.

Nothing would show that the city is back of its team so strongly as to have the business houses close Saturday afternoon from 2:30 to 5 o'clock to allow their employees to attend the game.

SAID TO BE ATTEMPTING TO RUN BLOCKADE WITH FAST CRUISER DETACHMENT

Unconfirmed Report Declares Speedy
Warships Will Try To Join Karlsruhe Off Coast Of South America

LONDON, Nov. 4.—It is reported without official confirmation that a German squadron of heavy war craft has left the naval base and headed for the open sea. The report persists in official quarters, however, and there has been no denial. The admiralty shows signs of the greatest activity. Most of the chiefs have been on duty throughout the night and it is believed here that important events are impending.
One of the reports which receives the most credence is that the Germans are attempting to run the blockade of the British fleet with some of their fast cruisers and tenders in the expectation of joining the Karlsruhe off the South American coast.

E. L. Philipp, with 2,444 votes, yesterday carried La Crosse county for the governorship.

Without exception the rest of the republican state ticket was elected with him from this county.

Karel, democrat, with 2,117 votes was second and Blaine, progressive independent, was third with 1,168 votes.

The United States senatorial race was unusually close, McGovern getting but 111 more votes than Paul O. Husting, democrat. The vote was: McGovern, 2660; Husting 2-549.

None of the contests between candidates for state offices was close, the republicans having substantial majorities.

The republicans elected assemblymen from both of the La Crosse districts, E. J. Kneen, Bangor, going down to defeat before Henry Freehoff. The vote: Freehoff, 1,473;
Kneen, 1,145.

Karl G. Kurtenacker, La Crosse, defeated C. L. Hood in the second assembly district. The vote: Kurtenacker, 17,75; Hood, 1,195.

Congressman John J. Esch secured more votes than any other candidate, his total in the county being 3,135.

Richard Grimsrud, Vernon county, democrat, was defeated in the senatorial contest in the Thirty-first Wisconsin district by J. Henry Bennett of Viroqua. Bennett led Grims-rud by 1,500. The district is composed of Jackson, Vernon and Monroe counties.

KILLED ON LIGHT TOWER

Milwaukee Electric Railway and the high tension towers of the company at Waukesha Beach.

KANSAS SPLITS DELEGATION

TOPEKA, Kas., Nov. 4.—Incomplete returns indicate Kansas picked four democrats, three republicans and one progressive for congress.

It developed today that the engagement yesterday when the submarine D-5 was sunk was of much greater magnitude than at first appeared. A fleet of mine layers was at work when it was surprised by a German squadron, and the Fraternal was sunk, and the Copious badly damaged. The torpedo gunboat Halcyon, which was on guard duty, engaged the Germans and the latter managed to hit the gunboat several times, although the damage was comparatively small. The German raiders were apparently enroute to bombard the British coast when they encountered the British vessels and were forced to fight.

As soon as the Germans were sighted, a wireless was sent to the naval base and the light cruiser squadron, which had been waiting for the opportunity to take a hand in the game, started for the scene.
The Germans, however, turned about and headed back toward Wilhelmshaven. It was in the ensuing chase that the D-5 was sunk. One report says that she hit a mine thrown overboard by the Germans and another that she was torpedoed.
Only four of her crew were saved, and most of the crew of the Fraternal also lost their lives.

British Squadron Defeated
VALPARAISO, Chile, Nov. 4.—
The German warships Gneisenau, Scharnhorst, Nurnberg, Leipzig and Dresden yesterday attacked a British squadron off Coronel, Chile.

The British cruiser Monmouth was sunk. The cruiser Good Hope was badly damaged, and as it was on fire is supposed to have been lost.

The British cruiser Glasgow, which was badly damaged, took refuge in the harbor of Coronel and is now bottled up.

The Scharnhorst, Nurnberg, and Gneisenau anchored at midday yesterday in Valparaiso harbor injured.

Under Craddock's Command
The British cruisers Good Hope, Monmouth, and Glasgow were under command of Rear Admiral Sir Christopher Craddock and had been searching the coast of South America for several weeks with the object of engaging the German cruisers which had been destroying British merchant vessels.

SUFFRAGE LOSES BY BIG MARGIN IN FOUR OF STATES

May Pass in Nevada and Nebraska and Has Good Chance of Success in Montana Returns

CHICAGO, Nov. 4.—Woman suffrage fared badly in elections yesterday. In Ohio, North and South Dakota and Missouri the amendments were snowed under. There is a slight chance that they may prevail in Nevada and Nebraska, although there are grave fears for their defeat. In Montana there is a chance that the amendment has been carried.

BUTTE, Mont., Nov. 4.—Suffragists and anti-suffragists in Montana both claimed the state for their cause early today, but only meager, scattered returns had been received and these were scarcely representative. The result is in doubt and may not be known until tonight or tomorrow.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Nov. 4.—
The Star estimates that woman suffrage was probably defeated by 100-000 votes.

PARIS.—German soldiers entering a shop at Port-Bailon wrenched off a number of counterfeit coins which were nailed on the counter, evidently believing them to be of exceptional value because thus solidly secured.

LONDON.—A would-be recruit at Chester castle was rejected because he had two thumbs on his right hand.

A Scotchman who had been out of work for nine months applied for a slice of the war relief fund. When told he could scarcely attribute his loss of work to the war he replied cheerfully: "Oh, well, I did na think I wad get anything; I just thought I wad see if there was anything gaun about. I'm na cairn."

CHANCE ARREST CATCHES COINERS

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Nov. 4.—The chance arrest, on suspicion, of Davis Shantos, aged 26, led to the finding of a counterfeit plant yesterday and the subsequent capture of Nick Shantos, aged 18. Both men are held for the federal authorities, following their confession that they had been operating in Milwaukee and other middle western cities. Four counterfeit dollars were found in the older man's pocket, and in a Sixth street rooming house the police found moulds and nearly two hundred counterfeit dollars, halves and quarters.

Peruna Cured Me Of Catarrh of Head and Stomach

Mr. Samuel Rossi, 612 Chestnut Ave., Vineland, N. J., writes: "I want to thank you for your advice and for what your medicine has done for me. I suffered with catarrh for seven years; catarrh of the head, nose and throat, and stomach. Peruna cured me. I followed your advice and I used three bottles of Peruna in three weeks, and now my trouble is all over. I will never be without Peruna in my house. We use it whenever any of the family have a slight cold, and find it of constant service."

TOMMIES RETURNED AND SAVED GUNS

Member of British Regiment Tells How Company Fought for Battery at Soissons

LONDON, Nov. 4.—A graphic story of the fighting around Soissons is told by Sergt. Meads of the 1st Royal Berkshire, in a letter written to his wife from the military hospital at Leeds:

"After the firing had lasted for two and a half hours," he says, "the order to retire was given, and we retired through a wood. Then General Davis came along, and said, 'Turn about men—you must save the guns at all cost.' 'There were only about fifty of us. We made a series of short rushes under a heavy shell fire until we were up to the guns. The Germans were not more than 800 yards away, but we were getting a very few burst shells, while we could see the Germans going down in scores. Every shot of ours told, as it was impossible to miss the enemy, who had formed from 6 to 10 deep. We could see our artillery shells simply mowing the Germans down. Still they came on. Presently the order rang out to abandon the guns but gallant young Lieut. Hilbert said, 'No, boys, we will never let a German take a British gun.' Then our chaps raised a cheer and resumed rapid firing. Presently we were reinforced by the South Staffords. The gun's crew stuck to their task most heroically, and amid cheering we rescued the whole of them. 'I saw the Scots Greys and the 12th Lancers make a good charge. Some of the Germans dropped on their knees and held their hands up, but as soon as our cavalry got through the Germans who had thrown their rifles to the ground picked them up and commenced firing again. They quickly paid the penalty, as our cavalry turned about, and then rightly showed the Germans no mercy."

"I beg your pardon—yes!" cried Felix, passing a hand before his dazed eyes.

Annabelle led the way into a dingy front bedroom that gave every evidence of being occupied, perhaps, between the fittings of boarders, by Mrs. Beals herself. The bed was carelessly made, sundry middle-aged feminine garments graced the chairs, and on the bureau was a grizzled false "front," whose rightful place was undoubtedly atop of Mrs. Beals' head.

CATS IN "SPOT" AT COLUMBUS, O.

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 4.—Aristocratic tabbies from many cities throughout the country were brought here today for the first exclusive cat show to be held in Columbus. The women in charge, members of the Ohio State Cat club, expected two hundred cats to be on exhibition during the three days of the show. The club will donate the proceeds to the Baby camp.

There are 123 classes of cats for which prizes are offered and it is expected there would be entries in every class. Entries were received from all over the eastern section of the country.

Dr. Mary E. Jones, of Boston, entered several of her tabbies, among them Kinkajou, one of the best known cats in the country.

WINDSOR FIGHT SEASON OPENS

WINDSOR, Ont., Nov. 4.—Pal Brown, the Hibbing, Minn., lightweight, and Patsy Drouillard, Canada's best 133-pounder, will open the regular boxing season at the Windsor Athletic club tonight. The boys will mix in an eight round engagement. Drouillard and Brown met in 1913 and the Canadian came out second best.

The TRIBUNE'S Daily Short Story

AT CATALPA VILLA

BY CLARISSA MACKIE

(Copyright, 1914, by the McClure Newspaper Syndicate.)

Catalpa Villa was the shabbiest of the long row of shabby suburban houses on the dusty street. A line of dwarf poplars edged the sidewalks where children played all day long, and the wind quivered among the leaves as a slight breeze wandered down the neglected street.

In the front window of Catalpa Villa was a black and gold sign. "Furnished Rooms to Rent," it read. Felix Dare alighted from a car at the corner and walked slowly down the street, studying the little painted signs over the doors. These signs were misleading enough.

For instance, Greenlawn was quite guileless of grass in its grubby front yard, Hope Cottage bore a quite hopeless aspect and Rose Arbor bowed its head beneath the weight of a worm-infested rambling rose bush which had long since ceased to bloom.

Then came Catalpa Villa, named for the decrepit catalpa tree that graced its little strip of ragged lawn.

Felix paused in front of Catalpa Villa, set down his bag and violin case, and studied a little notebook. The resuming his burdens he went up the flagged walk to the front door.

A flat-chested, grim-pawed woman admitted him to a stuffy little hall.

"Mrs. Beals?" asked Felix pleasantly.

"That's my name," she replied suspiciously.

Felix smiled. I met your son, Daniel Beals, when I was in Chicago, and he recommended his mother's home as an excellent boarding place. I was hoping you had a room for me." He did not add that Dan Beals was drinking himself to death in the big city, and that Felix's coming to board in this shabby suburb was prompted by a vague feeling of pity for Dan's mother.

"That's another matter," commented Mrs. Beals briskly. "It's the first sensible thing I ever knew Dan Beals to do in all his worthless life—but it's like his father—keen at hunting up work for me! I've got a front room, bay window, new carpet last winter, best bed you ever slept on. Want to see it?"

"If you please!" Felix followed his prospective landlady up the narrow stairs. When they reached the top, some one opened a lower door and a sweet voice floated up.

"Mrs. Beals, you are wanted at the telephone."

"I'm coming. Just you wait, Mr. Dare, and I'll send the girl to show you the room. It's three-fifty a week without board; if you eat here it will cost you eight altogether. Annabelle!" Mrs. Beals ran down the stairs with astonishing agility and addressed the unseen Annabelle. "Go upstairs and show that gentleman the front room. He can come right in if he wants to—you can get it ready in half an hour. Hurry now and don't stand staring at me so impudently!"

A door slammed after Mrs. Beals' retreating form. Then light steps sounded on the stairs and presently a girl joined Felix in the upper hall. Felix stared at her, for Mrs. Beals had the most amazingly pretty maid servant in the world—and she didn't look a bit like a maid servant; she was a lady from the smooth braids of her coroneted hair to the soles of her neat little black slippers. She wore a print gown of blue and a spotless white apron.

"You wished to look at a room?" she asked haughtily.

"I beg your pardon—yes!" cried Felix, passing a hand before his dazed eyes.

Annabelle led the way into a dingy front bedroom that gave every evidence of being occupied, perhaps, between the fittings of boarders, by Mrs. Beals herself. The bed was carelessly made, sundry middle-aged feminine garments graced the chairs, and on the bureau was a grizzled false "front," whose rightful place was undoubtedly atop of Mrs. Beals' head.

"This is the room," said the girl indifferently.

"But—but it is occupied," hesitated Felix.

"Mrs. Beal has been sleeping here, but it can be prepared for you within an hour," replied Annabelle.

"I hardly think," began Felix, and then he thought of his promise to Dan Beals—Dan had been a newspaper reporter, and Felix had liked the brilliant, dissolute youth; if in any way he could help Dan by stopping with Dan's mother he would have a try at it.

"I will bring my things up now," he said to Annabelle, who was gathering up Mrs. Beal's garments.

When Felix came into the room with his bag and violin case the girl uttered a little startled cry.

"Play?" she asked quickly. He smiled and nodded. "I am in the orchestra of the Excelsior Theatre."

"Not—not the new leader, Felix Dare?" she breathed eagerly.

"Yes," he answered in a surprised tone.

a sum of money to pay expenses—I was obliged to break into it to pay for an illness, and I came at last to board here—then I got behind with my board and she—Mrs. Beals—seized my violin, and I am working out what I owe her. It is a weary task paying old scores and trying to pay current expenses."

"You poor child," said Felix simply. "You have stopped the lessons?" he asked.

"Long ago."

"Who was your teacher?"

"Benzeet."

"Adolph Benzeet? Then you must possess unusual talent or he would not have bothered! I am sorry, Miss Annabelle."

"Thank you," she said gratefully, "and now, if you will excuse me, Mr. Dare, I will return to my duties and prepare your room. My work has always been below stairs, in the kitchen, but the chambermaid left this morning and we are short of help and I must hasten—we have supper at 6."

As Felix left the room Mrs. Beals poked her head through the balusters.

"You, Annabelle!" she called. "Have that room ready in half an hour—the man has brought the fish for supper and the table isn't even set!" she nodded sourly at the new boarder as he came down the stairs.

"Lazy thing, that girl," she muttered to his benefit. "Doesn't want to do a thing except fiddle, fiddle, all day long! Fiddling don't earn good money, so say I."

"I'm sorry to hear you say that, Mrs. Beals," returned Felix mischievously. "I forgot to tell you that I'm in the Excelsior orchestra."

Mrs. Beals eyed him suspiciously.

"I don't know as I mentioned that I'd like my board in advance."

"Certainly," agreed Felix drawing out his pocketbook.

Mrs. Beals greedily counted out the money and when the transaction was concluded, she asked: "My stepson didn't send me any money by you, did he?"

Felix smiled. He could not tell her that Dan Beals owed him $200. "So Dan is not your own son?" was all he asked.

"I should hope not," she cried devoutly. "I was a childless widow when I married Dan's pa and that boy has been the plague of my life. Make yourself free of the parlor, Mr. Dare."

Felix threw himself in a chair in the stuffy little room in which each separate article appeared to quarrel with the other. If Mrs. Beals was not the own mother of the unfortunate Dan, Felix did not feel any responsibility concerning her welfare. Mrs. Beals appeared to be fully able to take care of herself.

"One week will do me," sighed

Felix as he took out a newspaper and began to read. But a face came between him and the printed page—the wistful face of Annabelle.

"I wonder when she will have paid her debt?" he mused.

Then an odor of frying fish insinuated itself through the house and the advent of sundry tired and shabby looking men and women, who found a home here after a hard day's work in store or factory, told him that Annabelle had left his room ready for his occupancy and that she was at her post of duty downstairs.

Four weeks passed and found Felix Dare still an occupant of Mrs. Beal's front room. While Annabelle marveled that an artist like Dare should be content in that sordid atmosphere, she was glad that he remained. Wonderful music came from his room. Dreamy strains wafted up to Annabelle's attic room, and after awhile she learned to translate their meaning. He was playing to her!

Felix Dare's wooing covered a period of many weeks, but he did not give verbal utterance to his love until one day after Annabelle had paid off her debt and moved away.

Then he went to see her in her new boarding place far from Catalpa Villa; and in the stiff parlor of this new temporary home he told her the most wonderful story in the world.

The following Sunday evening they went for a trolley ride, and Felix stopped the car at a shabby street and led Annabelle past Catalpa Villa. The moon was shining on the lonely catalpa tree, on the hopelessness of Hope Cottage and the brownness of Greenlawn.

"Catalpa Villa is a beautiful spot," said Felix seriously. "It will always be beautiful in my sight, dear—guess why?"

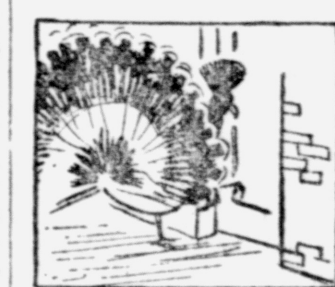

"Because we met there—and because Love transforms all that is ugly and sordid," whispered Annabelle.

But One Evening Mr. Peacock Had to Go to a Meeting.

Daddy's Bedtime Story

How the Peacock Lost His Pride

"S HALL I tell you a story about how one peacock lost his pride?" asked daddy.

"Oh, yes, do!" cried Jack and Evelyn, and so daddy began.

"This peacock lived in a country lane along with chickens and geese and doves. He had a pretty little home, prettier than Mr. Rooster's coop or Mrs. Dove's cote or the house where Mr. and Mrs. Goose lived.

"He was so very proud, however, that he never associated with any of the other barnyard fowl, and when he would go out for a walk with Mrs. Peacock and all the tiny peacocks he never noticed the common fowl at all, but would strut right past them with his tail all spread out and a sharp eye upon his little family to see that they did not look at or speak to any one.

"But one evening Mr. Peacock had to go to a meeting of all the other peacocks in the neighborhood and so left Mrs. Peacock and the little peacocks at home.

"It was a very fine meeting and broke up rather late. Mr. Peacock spread his tail and swaggered down the village street until he came to the lane where he lived.

"There was a good deal of excitement in the lane he noticed, and just then the cry of 'Fire!' rang out, and some one else shouted: 'It's Mr. Peacock's house! It's been set on fire by a lightning bug!'

"Then how Mr. Peacock did drop his tail and scamper, and, sure enough, when he got to his home it was bursting into flames.

"Where are my wife and daughters?" he cried. "In the house!" shouted Mr. Rooster. "Get 'em out; get 'em out!" yelled Mr. Peacock, not attempting to do anything at all to help.

"We can't open the door!" quacked the geese as they ran for water.

"Save my family and I will reward you!" yelled Mr. Peacock. "I will give each of you one of my beautiful feathers," and he spread out his tail into a great fan.

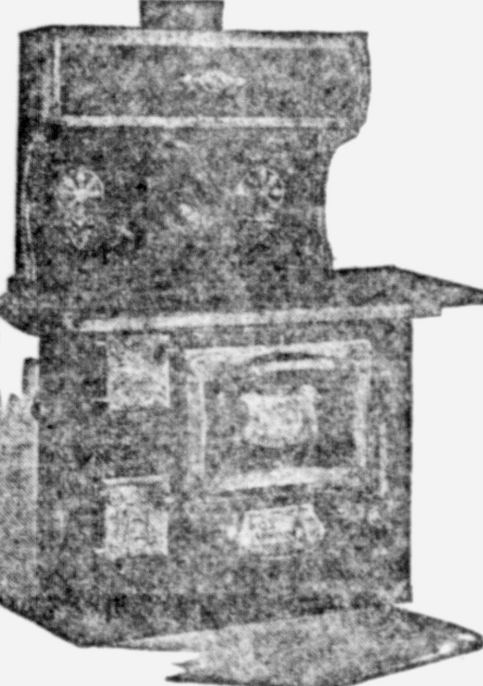

"How foolish you are," spoke up Mr. Rooster. "We don't want your feathers, and you aren't half so beautiful as you think you are. Just bestir those ugly feet of yours and kick in the door, and then very likely we can save your family."

"Mr. Peacock looked down at his feet, dropped his tail and gave the door of his house a kick.

"In went the door, and out trooped Mrs. Peacock and the little peacocks. You see, Mr. Peacock lost his pride long enough to do something useful."

ELECTION RESULTS
Emanuel Whipple has been elected governor of Wisconsin. At this hour returns are not sufficiently complete to permit intelligent analysis of the voting.

In the nation a pronounced swing back to republicanism seems to carry upon its face a note of reaction of which the character of the officers-elect is prima facie evidence.

HAVE THE RULERS HAD "ENOUGH"?

Judging by the declaration of both sides in the titanic European conflict that they intend to spend the last dollar and the last man before admitting defeat or discussing terms of settlement, success seems remote for the attempt, announced yesterday by President Arthur Hoffman of Switzerland, to prevail upon the warring nations to accept mediation by neutral powers.

The war has now lasted three months. A million men, perhaps, have fallen; billions of dollars have been spent for lasting evil; one country and parts of four others have been converted into desolate graveyards; thousands are starving and homeless; cities are heaps of ruins; priceless art treasures are ashes. It is possible that the monarchs are ready to reconsider their rejection of President Wilson's good offices, which they made so hastily in August when both sides were fresh for the conflict.

President Hoffman will have the ardent support of the United States, Norway, Sweden, Denmark, Holland and Spain. It is to be hoped that the influence of these powers will bring peace.

But there will be no peace—unless the rulers are ready to cry "enough."

PRACTICE AND THEORY HAND IN HAND

For some years La Crosse has been proud, with good cause, of its school system. Boasts can be made with even greater justice since F. P. Hixon's generosity has given the city a manual training equipment which equals, if it does not surpass, anything of the sort in the country. But there is one branch of the educational system of the city which has not received the praise to which it is entitled. That is our system of evening and continuation schools.

Under the efficient guidance of Superintendent Thomas G. Sutherland, the industrial classes are starting upon their third season with an enrollment that already eclipses the maximum of last year. Mere enrollment, however, means little. It is the practical value to the students of the instruction received that tests the worth of the courses. La Crosse continuation and evening schools pass this test with a high average.

In the first place, there are no "dead ends" of decorative knowledge in the courses offered. One is impressed in each class, whether it consists of two dozen foreigners struggling with the tongue of their adopted country, or of forty girls learning to stitch a straight seam, with the practicality of the work. The foreigners learn the names of everyday objects. The girls work on clothing for themselves. The test of work in the cooking classes is the edibility of the dishes prepared.

It is a tribute to the efficiency of the school system that the pupils are impressed with the value of the training given them. There is no skylarking. In all the classes every one is working.

The equipment, especially that for teaching wood and metal working to the boys, is first-class. Complete wood and metal working plants are open to the students in the Hixon manual training addition, plants that are the equal of any in the city for modern practice.

What the students in La Crosse continuation and evening schools are taught is real practical education—practice backed up by theory. And the fact that manufacturers are eager to employ students of the high schools, that the demand, in fact, exceeds the supply, vouches for the success of the system.

If the Sultan proclaims a holy war, what will the Mohammedan Turcos do, who are now fighting Germany with the French? Not to mention the Gurkhas and Sikhs who are helping Great Britain.

The bankers of Sofia, after sweeping the vaults and turning the baby's bank upside down, have announced that Bulgaria will remain neutral. Two wars will do them for the present, thank you.

It seems rather late for Turkey to apologize. Her ill-advised gobble is likely to cost her a good size indemnity.

A high school teacher says hasn't much hope for a student who recently translated "Deutschland ueber alles" as "German overalls."

General Carranza has been deposed as provisional president by the Aguas Calientes conference, but that fact has yet to be impressed upon his army.

Our office strategist is convinced that Colonel Goethals ought to train the Culebra slide for use in time of war to blockade the canal against hostile warships.

Quips and Cranks and Wanton Wiles

Toil
To the work—
With a will to do and faith to bear
And a mind for victory,
With eyes made calm by conquered tears,
With heart made strong by conquered fears,
And a gift of love to spare.

To the work—
I must keep my soul in leash this day,
Least I worry the God of years
With the spendthrift thoughts of idle hours,
And the broken strength of wasted powers,
And a lack of words to pray.

To the work—
With a joy in the best till labors cease,
And a light of soul to know
That the comfort and strength the world would ask
Must come from the man who has bled at his task,
And fought for his right to peace.
—Helen Scudder-Cochran.

All Looked Alike
Some Chinamen succeed in mastering English so perfectly that they can make puns in the foreign tongue. One wonders whether Bishop Root, who tells the following story, could have shown himself equally clever in speaking Chinese. Bishop Root said that when he first went to China he had a good deal of difficulty in remembering faces. "I'm getting over my difficulty now," he said one day to a mandarin, "but in the beginning here in Hankow you all looked as like as two peas." "Two peas?" said the English speaking mandarin, smiling. "Why not say two queens?"

Thought the Inevitable Happened
"I was outspoken in my sentiments at the club this afternoon," said Mrs. Garrulous to her husband the other evening. With a look of astonishment he replied: "I can't believe it, my dear. Who outspoke you?"—National Monthly.

Breaking a Bad Habit
A customer had come to purchase a beef roast. Now, it seems that Bill used to have a most annoying habit (to the patrons) of bearing down with a heavy hand upon the scales. This high cost of living thing, and all that, were bad enough in all conscience, thought some of his patrons, but one of them finally broke Bill of this trick.

As was stated, the customer was buying a beef roast and Bill slyly was helping out the work of the scales with one pudgy fist when before a shopful of people the buyer said:

"Take your hand off that scale, Bill. I'm buying beef, not pork." Since then no one has had to chide Bill for a similar act.—Louisville Times.

Determined to be Right
Missus—Jane, you must not talk to me in the rude way you do. You must learn to speak properly; you must say, "If you please, madam," and sometimes "ma'am," or for the most part "mum," and when speaking to the master you must address him as "sir."
Jane a few days after went to her mistress in a great hurry:
"If you please, madam, and sometimes ma'am, and the most part mum, sir's fell down in a fit."

Two of a Kind
"Bald heads remind me of kind words."
"Why so?"
"They can never lye, you know."

WHAT CAUSES COLDS?

This question and "How to Prevent Colds" is asked a thousand times every day. A cold is really a fever, always caused by the weather but due to a disordered condition of the blood or lack of important food elements. In changing seasons fat foods are essential because they distribute heat by enriching the blood and so render the body better able to withstand the varying elements.

This is the underlying reason why the medicinal fats in Scott's Emulsion quickly overcome colds and build strength to prevent more serious sickness. It contains nature's medicinal fats, so skillfully prepared that the blood profits from every drop, and it is free from harmful drugs or alcohol.

"And divorced already! Why, before she's forty—" The dervish shook his head mournfully. "But my predecessor—I mean, my successor-to-be—how has time, the enemy, treated him?"

"He has passed the line when, according to the prophet, a man becomes a man, indeed."

"This marriage to me would make her—this rather volatile young lady very happy?"

"It would."

"I should be a great benefactor, then?" With mocking gaiety.

"No doubt."

"Both parties would bless me?" Expansively.

"They would."

"Then why should I hesitate?"

"You don't." Persuasively.

The dervish made no answer. Could they have read what lay behind the inscrutable expression of the face half turned from them now, they would have been startled. More was involved in his decision than they knew. To become the bridegroom of blushing seventeen and then to dissolve the tie—that would not be difficult. He would be participating in a mere formality, lending himself to a commonplace transaction, frequently employed among Mohammedans when husbands who lost their temper desired back that which in a moment of anger they had set from them. But the possibilities of other complications, more serious ones?—Were they offset by certain advantages? His present needs were urgent. To get out of Damascus he needed a purse. It was a queer way to make money, yet an honest enough one, if people would quarrel and get divorced and then be foolish enough to want to return to a state of perpetual infidelity. Sweet seventeen! That was about the age of the lady of the pastry shop. The satirical look faded for a moment from the old eyes, but immediately returned. His gallantry had nearly cost him a good beating. What a fool to have risked it! A cunning for a woman! He laughed softly, derisively.

"You have decided?" inquired the portly man curiously.

"To the cafe!" was the answer. "Eat, drink and be merry, for tomorrow we—get married!"

CHAPTER IV
Light of Life
The dervish was married next day, at high noon, or somewhere between five and six o'clock, oriental time. As El Sabbagh, the dyer—the dervish's portly friend of the night before—had pointed out, marriages in the case of a widow, or a divorcee, are conducted with comparatively little ostentation. A number of details of the spousal ceremonies of a young girl, unmarried before, are, on the second, or third occasion, omitted. The guests do not expect to be regaled by sprightly entertainment by dancing girls, or female singers. No torch-bearers, or mud-nat, are served. But even so, the ceremony is far from simple, from an accidental standpoint.

The dyer, bearing a bundle which proved to contain a new suit of clothes, took the dervish early in hand on the day of the wedding.

"You can put these on," he said, indicating the garments, "while I go and see Light of Life, to arrange about the dowry."

"Light of Life?" The dervish stretched himself more comfortably on the cushion of the divan in the dyer's house where he was temporarily domiciled. "Who is she? Prospective of relative of mine?"

"Your mother-in-law. A charming woman, though," dubiously, "a rather close hand at a bargain."

"You mean I have to give a dowry?" reaching for a cup of coffee.

"Well, Amad has to give it for you."

"Very kind of him. First he gives me a wife, and then a dowry to go with her."

"It was at Light of Life's suggestion." Lugubriously.

"And she dominates the situation?" With a laugh. "I begin to admire my mother-in-law immensely." The dyer gave him a curious look. "By the way, what did you

Less Than a Cent
You may know a woman who has a reputation for making delicious cake, biscuits, etc.,—who seems to hit it right every time.
You may also know a woman, who, no matter how painstaking, can't seem to get the knack of successful baking.
Both use the same butter, same eggs, same flour and sugar. What is the difference?
Very likely it's all in the baking powder. Undoubtedly the woman with the knack uses Royal Baking Powder, and the unsuccessful woman uses an alum baking powder thinking it cheaper.
Yet the difference in the cost of a whole large cake is less than a cent.
It is economy to use say the name of my wife-to-be is?"

"Fatma."

"Good! I will try to remember. But this Amad?—this dear good Amad, my benefactor—after I have divorced Fatma, and he remarries her, will he have to give her a third dowry?"

"This is as Allah wills!" Resignedly.

"Or Light of Life?" Gaily.

The dyer shrugged. "I'll leave you now to array yourself. Never had a substitute bridegroom before such garments, all embroidered and fine silk. Be ready when I return. The servant will bring water for the religious ablutions. How long does it take you to say your prayers?"

"About three hours."

"Can you not say thirty minutes?"

SKIN TROUBLE ON HANDS AND FEET
Similar to Ringworm. Tiny Clear Blisters. Skin Rough and Cracked Open. Could Scarcely Use Hands. Used Cuticura Soap and Ointment. Completely Rid of Trouble.

Caseville, Mo.—"My hands and feet were affected with a trouble similar to ringworm for a number of years. It first appeared as tiny clear blisters and in places the blisters were so close together that they almost formed one large blister. The skin was rough and cracked open. At times it was so bad that it disabled me; my hands became so sore that I could scarcely use them."

"I used every remedy that I could find but nothing seemed to do any good. Finally I sent for a sample of Cuticura Soap and Ointment and I then got a cake of Cuticura Soap and a box of Cuticura Ointment which completely rid me of the trouble." (Signed) Ray Bryant, Mar. 14, 1914.

Samples Free by Mail
A generation of mothers has found no soap so well suited for cleansing and purifying the skin and hair of infants and children as Cuticura Soap. Its absolute purity and refreshing fragrance alone are enough to recommend it above ordinary skin soaps, but there are added to these qualities delicate yet effective emollient properties derived from Cuticura Ointment, which render it most valuable in overcoming a tendency to distressing eruptions and promoting skin and hair health. Cuticura Soap and Ointment sold everywhere. Liberal sample of each mailed free, with 32-p. book. Address post-card "Cuticura, Dept. T, Boston."

In dismay.

"And so omit some thirty rekahs? On your conscience be it!"

But left to himself the dervish forgot to repeat even a single verse. He gazed around him with a quizzical uplifted brow. Dame Fortune was certainly a most capricious mistress. That luxurious couch was in marked contrast to the flagstones he had been lately accustomed to. Lighting his long pipe, he inhaled and exhaled the excellent Persian tobacco with a nice appreciation of its quality. His host had been as good as his word and had proved most hospitable. He had even provided a carat weight of ambergris to lend the coffee unusual fragrance. The dervish poured out the last of it from the coffee-pot, and then set down the delicate cup of brass, holding the dainty porcelain with a sigh of satisfaction. It was long since he had gone to sleep a vagabond; he awoke—if he were awake!—in the role of an impromptu bridegroom. Rightfully he should be lying now in a little court of the mosque, but four walls enclosed him, while overhead a wooden ceiling restricted the upward gaze to the consideration of a somewhat confused pattern in paneling.

He clapped his hands—more to bacco! A girl, resembling the conventional slave girl of an illumined eastern manuscript, answered the summons. He gave his order, and—"Send a barber," he said suddenly, his last command an afterthought.

When half an hour later the dyer returned, he rubbed his eyes unbelievably. He had brought home the night before a disreputable-looking man; he gazed now upon—

Forewarned
Mr. Bachrack is a most considerate husband, but of course there is a limit.

Upon leaving home one morning his wife requested him to purchase for her a pair of shoes, giving him a detailed description of the same.

Promptly on his luncheon hour Mrs. Bachrack proceeded to the shoe emporium.

"I want a pair of button shoes for my wife," he announced, as the clerk came forward.

"What kind do you wish?"

"Doesn't matter—just so as they don't button in the back."

A Reigning Fad
Nora—What's Laura so puffed up about these days? Has she "contracted alliance?"

Dora—Oh, no! She's the owner of a couple of prize-winning dogs, that's all.—Judge.

Hens His Application
"Here's a Swiss named Egg who lives in New York petitioning to have his name changed."

"Sort of an egg shake, eh! What is the trouble?"

"He and his wife have four children and his family is constantly referred to as 'the half-dozen Eggs.' He claims his yolk is too heavy to be borne."

"Why doesn't he lay for his tormentors?"

"It appears that he did once and got beaten, whipped to a froth. Poor Egg could barely scramble home."—Boston Transcript.

"What kind of mountains are there in South America?" he was asked.

"High," he replied.

Drowning the Dishes

"She's got a beau in the parlor," growled pa, "and that loud music is to drown the sound of her mother washing the dishes."—Pittsburgh Post.

KEEP WHAT YOU GAIN

Most people who have but a small reserve of strength feel better in summer than in winter. The vitality gained during the out-of-door season carries them through the trying weather of winter and early spring until there comes a time when the stored-up reserve strength is not sufficient.

How, then, shall we keep and add to the reserve of strength that means so much? By taking Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, the blood and nerve tonic, to strengthen and sustain the system so that it can keep all the strength that it has gained and gain more. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills build up the blood and enable it to carry nourishment to every part of the body. Many disorders that have proved stubborn for years have been reached by this tonic treatment. Try these pills for debility, nervousness, headache, loss of appetite, sleeplessness, rheumatism, anemia or any other condition caused or aggravated by thin blood and weak nerves. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills contain no harmful ingredients of any kind. Two pamphlets describing the action of this remedy on the blood and nerves will be sent free on request by the Dr. Williams' Medicine Company, Schenectady, N. Y., if you mention this paper.

SUMMER HOME WILSON'S PROBLEM

Lease on Harlakenden House at Cornish Expires and Other Sites Are Offered

WASHINGTON, Nov. 4.—What to do for a summer White House next year is a problem which President Wilson must face. His lease on Harlakenden House in the Cornish, N. H., plies expires this year, and whether he will see fit to renew it is a secret which he alone shares. His closest friends believe he will select some other place. Moreover, in various sections of the country there are movements afoot to erect or select a permanent summer White House.

May Use Monticello

There is plenty of room for selection. The latest proposal for a summer White House is "Monticello," Thomas Jefferson's old home in Virginia. Rep. Levy's willingness to sell this place to the government for a half a million dollars has suggested the idea that it would make an excellent place for the presidents to sojourn in their off moments. Perhaps the chief advantage of such a scheme would be the accessibility of the place from Washington. In times when the president was not there, it could be a mecca for tourists—as it has been under private ownership.

Then another suggestion for a summer residence of the president is the construction of a home at Mount Weather, Va., a government reservation, only a short distance from the capital. This spot would be ideal either as a summer home, or as a week end vacation place. The president there need not feel that he is "off the job," for its nearness to Washington would make it possible for him to get back to the capital on the shortest notice.

Estimates by backers of Mount Weather show that a permanent summer White House could be constructed there at small cost.

Colorado Site Offered

Still another elaborate plan for a mansion to house presidents in their vacation periods is the offer of a private individual to construct at Mount Falcon, Colo., an elaborate home. Pictures drawn from architect's tentative plans show this as almost a castle fit for a medieval baron or king.

Thus far the seashore resorts have made no bid for attention, but in the minds of many here the president has a preference for the mountains for a vacation spot, although as a Jerseyite he cannot fail to appreciate the joys of life by the shore play grounds.

At any rate while solicitous people throughout the country are trying to pick President Wilson's vacation place for him next summer he is merely considering it incidentally. Later he will give it more serious thought, if he finds that the coming summer affords him the chance of a long and much-needed rest.

HILL GIVES CHECK FOR BELGIAN AID

Sends $25,000 to King Albert to Assist in Relief of War Sufferers

ST. PAUL, Minn., Nov. 4.—James J. Hill, late yesterday sent a check for $25,000 to King Albert of Belgium to aid in relief of the war sufferers.

The dire need of the Belgian king was the only reason assigned by the railroad builder for his action.

This was Mr. Hill's personal contribution to King Albert for relief of the war stricken country. It is no part of the fund Miss Clara Hill is raising, nor connected with the supplies gathered in St. Paul last week by Mrs. L. W. Hill and others for Belgian war victims.

The railroad builder is personally acquainted with King Albert, who when he was in the United States several years ago, was a guest at the Hill home.

ST. PAUL, Minn., Nov. 4.—James J. Hill, late yesterday sent a check for $25,000 to King Albert of Belgium to aid in relief of the war sufferers.

SYRUP OF FIGS FOR CROSS, SICK FEVERISH CHILD

If little stomach is sour, liver torpid or bowels clogged.

Mothers can rest easy after giving "California Syrup of Figs," because in a few hours all the clogged-up waste, sour bile and fermenting food gently moves out of the bowels, and you have a well, playful child again. Children simply will not take the time from play to empty their bowels, and they become tightly packed, ed, liver gets sluggish and stomach disordered.

When cross, feverish, restless, see if tongue is coated, then give this delicious "fruit laxative." Children love it, and it can't cause injury. No difference what ails your little one—if full of cold, or a sore throat, diarrhoea, stomach-ache, bad breath, remember, a gentle "inside cleanser" should always be the first treatment given. Full directions for babies, children of all ages and grown-ups are printed on each bottle.

Beware of counterfeit fig syrups. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," then look carefully and see that it is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company." We make no smaller size. Hand back with contempt any other fig syrup.

CANNING URGED AS PIN MONEY WORK

U. S. Says Farmer's Daughter Can Make Money by Preserving for City Folk

WASHINGTON, Nov. 4.—Under the caption "How the Farmer's Daughter May Earn Pin Money," the department of Agriculture has just issued a bulletin urging country girls to can fruit, pickles, and preserves to sell to city folks who have a taste for preserves "like mother used to make."

As an instance of the profit of "canning" the department cites the case of a Virginia woman who has made a national reputation putting up and selling "pin money pickles." She began a few years ago in a modest way but now her products are so popular that they can be found nearly everywhere in the United States. Another woman, the department says, has built up a profitable business making chowchow which she sells for $3 a gallon.

The bulletin while encouraging the young woman in her efforts to make a business proposition of putting up fruits and vegetables, cautions against over enthusiasm. It advises that the beginner experiment with a few cans before going too heavily into the project. If the first cans keep well, she may be encouraged to proceed.

"It is best to specialize and work up a reputation for some particular kind of goods, as did the woman already mentioned," advises the department. "One girl may make a feature of catsup, another may find her best product in pickles, while another may put up an especially attractive can of peppers, cauliflower, peaches, apples or tomatoes."

"People of means are most likely one to want 'home-canned' products. The managers of the best hotels, the stewards of social clubs in the cities, the managers of railroad dining cars and many retail grocers will be glad to use the products of the girl who does her canning at home. If the young woman knows by experience that her products are first class she need not hesitate to put a good price on them."

Fly Chasers

Specialists of the department of Agriculture have been conducting a series of tests with various substances designed to keep flies, such as the stable fly, the house fly, and the screw worm fly, away from the animals for from one to four days.

Various kinds of flies tend to injure cattle by weakening them, and reducing their milk supply, the department says in a bulletin just issued. It is well established that the stable fly does considerable damage, especially in northern Texas, where it was found that they killed stock directly, made cattle more subject to recurrence of Texas fever, and reduced milk supply, causing a loss estimates of $25,000 in a single year.

Find Hay Grass for South

The department of Agriculture experts are now devoting considerable attention to the instruction of Sudan grass as a valuable addition to the forage crops of many sections. A hay grass that will do well in the South has been much sought for, and it is believed that Sudan grass will fill this want.

The value of Sudan grass is by no means confined to the South, the department states. In the central Great Plains south of North Dakota it promises to become one of the most important hay crops, and in latitudes between those of southern New York and northern Tennessee it will replace to a great extent the millets as catch crops, the department predicts.

NEARLY HALF OF CONVICTS STUDY

TRENTON, N. J., Nov. 4.—New Jersey's prison school for convicts has again opened at the penitentiary here and the popularity of this feature of the prison's life is attested by the fact that over forty per cent of its population has enrolled for the fall and winter courses of study, according to figures given out today.

This school is unique in state. In its convict pupils are represented practically every offense known to students of criminology. The scale runs from murder down to petty larceny. While the principal aim of the night school is to fit the convict for better things when he has served his sentence and is released from the gray walls of the institution, it is interesting to note that "life terms" who are now put in the world earning an honest livelihood, bearing proof of the worth and efficiency of the prison school.

New Jersey's prison school was established in 1905 mainly through the energy of the Rev. Father Aloys M. Fish, then one of the prison's chaplains, whose experience as a student of convicts through many years' association with the prison convinced him of its usefulness as a means of reformation. The head of the educational department at the institution, Edward O. Lanning, has many testimonials from former "pupils" who are now put in the world earning an honest livelihood, bearing proof of the worth and efficiency of the prison school.

ZEPPELIN PRACTISES FOR RAID ON FLEET

ZURICH, Nov. 4.—Queer stunts are being performed almost nightly on the German side of Lake Constance by a Zeppelin from Friedrichshafen.

For several hours, usually starting about 11 o'clock, the big dirigible has been maneuvering over the lake, letting down from time to time by means of long cables round objects upon which being detached sink immediately. The natives are convinced that these are dummy torpedoes and that the Zeppelin is practicing for a possible attack on the British fleet in the North Sea or upon English coast towns and possibly London itself. The airship has been known to release 50 of these fake projectiles in the space of a few minutes.

DANDRUFFY HEADS BECOME HAIRLESS

Scalp Dries—Chokes out the Hair And Prevents its Growth.

If you want plenty of thick, beautiful, glossy, silky hair, do by all means get rid of dandruff, for it will starve your hair and ruin it if you don't. It doesn't do much good to try to brush or wash it out. The only sure way to get rid of dandruff is to dissolve it, then you destroy it entirely. To do this, get about four ounces of ordinary liquid arvon; apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips. By morning most, if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it. You will find, too, that all itching and digging of the scalp will stop, and your hair will be silky, fluffy, lustrous, soft and look and feel a hundred times better. You can get liquid arvon at any drug store. It is inexpensive and four ounces is all you will need, no matter how much dandruff you have. This simple remedy never fails.

BRITISH MILITIA AT FRONT IN FRANCE

Territorials Paid a High Tribute by Eye Witness Who Saw Them in Action

LONDON, Nov. 4.—Britain's territorial army is in the field in France. This was made known today when in another story from the battle line by an eye witness, high tribute was paid to the London Scottish, which it was stated was the first of the territorials to get into action. On November 1, by brilliant charges, they frustrated an attempt on the part of the Germans to take the offensive. The Indian troops are also declared to be fighting admirably. On October 14 the enemy was very heavily reinforced and at once again attempted the offensive, according to the report. The first British army corps lost heavily in driving them back. That night the Germans made a night attack in force in the vicinity of Messines, but were driven off. So persistent were the German attacks that both the French and British fronts were materially reinforced. On November 1, the enemy again attacked the whole line, but was everywhere repulsed. British howitzers demolished two of the German eight inch guns. The British artillery continues its enormous slaughter and prisoners admit that the Germans are greatly discouraged.

"Sure!"
"What do you take me for? Where's the joke?"
"No joke at all. I'm serious."
"Show me please. You know, I'm—"
"Well, I always wanted a large diamond ring, but as you say, the question was, where was all the money coming from—at one time? I usually had a few dollars left out of my salary, but the amount I saved never got within speaking distance of a ring like this. Well, one afternoon I saw a showy little ring marked $25.00 in Mr. Irvine's window at 429 Main St. I went in; tried on the ring; it just fit, and though it certainly was not like this one, it looked good to me and I bought it. Mr. Irvine then explained that in case I wished a larger stone, that $25.00 diamond was worth in trade exactly what I paid for it.

"Well to shorten the story, I exchanged that $25.00 stone for one worth $50.00, the $50.00 for an $85.00, the $85.00 for $150.00, and the $150.00 for this one—and as I never missed the money that way, I figure that I 'grew' this diamond from that $25.00 seedling. Am I right?"
"Yes; I think you are, and I also think I will see Mr. Irvine."

No Balloons That Day.

When Dickson, not yet four years old, ran in to ask his mother if he could buy a balloon she replied: "I can't let you buy one today, for I haven't any change." A minute or two later he was heard calling at the top of his voice: "Balloon man, balloon man," to the man who was by that time well past the house. He turned and came into the yard and up to the porch, expecting, of course, to make a sale, when Dickson said: "Balloon man, my mother hasn't any change today."—Chicago Tribune.

REVOLUTIONARY OFFERS SERVICE

PETROGRAD, Nov. 4.—Vladimir Bourtzeff, the famous revolutionary leader, has returned to Russia, although no political amnesty has been granted, in order to offer his services to the czar. Such is the news that has excited Nihilist circles and which provides perhaps the most dramatic example of the way in which the war has drawn all classes in Russia together.

Bourtzeff was exiled to Siberia in 1888 but escaped and settled first in Paris, and then in Switzerland, whence he was expelled by the Swiss government. He made several unsuccessful attempts to return to Russia, an eventually started a revolutionary journal in London called the "Will of the people." He was arrested by the British police, at the instance of the Russian embassy, and sentenced to eighteen months imprisonment for an article which it was alleged contained an indictment to murder the czar.

On his release he went to Paris, and during the brief era of constitutional government in 1905 he lived in Petrograd. Two years later he was compelled to fly to Paris, and it was while living there that he startled the world by the exposure of the notorious police spy and agent provocateur Azeff, Harting and others.

He published a journal "The Future" in Paris, and one of his greatest coups was the publication of a copy of the secret MS journal which daily reports to the czar the activities of the secret police.

Bourtzeff declares that this war will bring regeneration to Russia, that there will be no longer any room for political reaction, and that the finest national unity will be obtained by an era of free political life.

CHOOSES SOCIALIST

NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—With only two election districts missing in the Twelfth congressional district early today indications were that New York might send a socialist to congress. At that time Meyer London, socialist, was leading Henry Goldtole, democrat, by 1,100, having polled 12,309 votes.

Wrinkles Big and Wrinkles Little Go Quickly—Some Startling Beauty Secrets

Gems of Secret Information on Beauty, by Valeska Suratt, Whose Fame as America's Self-Made Beauty-Queen, is World-Wide.

BY MISS VALESKA SURATT

NOT so much the big wrinkles, but the little ones, are what rob the face of its youthful appearance. No matter how faithfully and vigorously you may engage in massaging the face, there will be no perceptible result unless the proper article is used. Nearly all creams sold for this purpose in the stores have the same base and ingredients. This is why perhaps you have experienced but little improvement with one cream over another. Every woman should as well know now as later that the cost of prepared creams is too high to allow their use being liberal and unstinted, as it should be to produce results. Furthermore, their ingredients are usually lacking in effect, because these ingredients must be cheap, otherwise there is no profit in their sale. If you will make up your mind to make up your own cream, which you can do in a few moments as follows, you will have a remarkable wrinkle eradicator, one that works quickly and surely, and it will cost you far less than any prepared cream you can buy. Furthermore, you will get the result desired. Dissolve two tablespoonfuls of glycerine and two ounces of ep-tol in half a pint of water. This cream used every day will produce a startling change in a short time, making the face plump and youthful to a marked degree.

MELICENT R.—Yes, you can stop falling of hair very quickly. Here is a formula which produces marked changes in the hair roots and scalp tissues. The result is that dandruff is absolutely stopped, the hair roots regain their youthful vigor, hair grows quickly and luxuriantly, often several inches a month, and it takes on a very silky and healthy gloss. There is nothing so satisfactory as this splendid formula. Mix one ounce of beta equinol in water and alcohol, half a pint each, or use a full pint of bay rum instead. This makes a very economical hair treatment, is mixed in a few moments, and cannot be surpassed. Use liberally. Any drug SORROWFUL.—The bust can very often be developed. The following mixture is the best thing known for this, and it is safe, though of course no one can ever be sure of success in this regard. Mix two ounces of ruetone, obtainable at any drug store, with half a cup of sugar and dissolve in a pint of cold water. Take two teaspoonfuls after meals and at bedtime.

EVA G. R.—You have probably never heard of the remarkable properties of eggol as a head-wash and dandruff remover. This dissolves away all fatty accumulations and dandruff, which, nothing else, not even soap and hard scrubbing, can do. A teaspoonful of eggol in half a cup of hot water makes the most exquisite shampoo you can ever get. It cleans out all the pores wonderfully, and lets the hair "breathe," thus assisting very materially in making the hair healthy and vigorous. I would never use soap on hair. Eggol, besides, leaves the hair easy to do up. It is very economical, as for a moderate price you can obtain enough eggol for over a dozen of these extraordinary head-washes.

MRS. T. L. M.—Simple sulfo solution is the only thing that will remove superfluous hair successfully. This is because it is the only thing which dissolves the hair instead of burning it off, as other depilatories do. As a result, it never leaves a mark or red spot, or injures the skin, but leaves it clear, soft and smooth. Use it on any part of the body, no matter how delicate the skin. It never fails and works in a few moments. The simple sulfo solution can be secured at any drug store.

MISS X. O.—It is remarkable but true that you can get rid of blackheads in a few minutes. Sprinkle some norexin on a sponge which you have wet with hot water, and rub this on the blackheads. In a few minutes they will be all gone. This holds true for even the tiniest blackheads which it is impossible to pinch out. Never pinch out blackheads.

MRS. T. N. P.—The liquids and powders sold for excessive perspiration are usually but momentary in effect. Applying hydrolyzed tale to the arm-pits keeps these fresh and dry all the time, and you will not have your arm-pits wet and your dress-shields curl up like ropes. It will save the damage to your garments through fading and rotting of the fabric. Hydrolyzed tale can be secured at any drug store. It destroys all odors at once. It is also the best thing known for perspiring feet.

ALLIES CLAIM TO HAVE GAINED ON EXTREME LEFT TIP

British Force Wedge Between German Armies in France and Belgium Is Report

FORCED TO RETREAT ALONG AISNE

Germans Suddenly Attack in Great Force After Having Been Quiet for Weeks

PARIS, Nov. 4.—Important gains in the extreme left and alternate gains and recessions between Ypres and the Aisne were reported today. The Germans are continuing their efforts to renew the offensive, but it is still claimed at military headquarters here, that at no point have they been successful. There have been heavy reinforcements sent to the north and to the Argonne and Woëvre regions, in anticipation of the arrival there of German troops sent from the east front.

The British forces are reported to have forced a wedge between the armies operating between Belgium and northern France and to be once more threatening the German combinations. All of the reports received from the right wing indicate that the Germans are being pushed further toward Metz and a general withdrawal of the Germans in this section is anticipated.

Cut Off Allied Force

Reports that the Germans have been able to cut off detachments of the allies in the vicinity of Roye and near Arras gained much credence today. It was stated that these troops were surrounded and that with their ammunition exhausted, they were compelled to surrender. It is said that they number about 3,500.

The fighting in the north is centered in the vicinity of Dixmude, around Ypres, between Lille and Arras, and in the neighborhood of Roye. There the Germans have vainly attempted to assume the offensive and they are reported to be still throwing fresh troops into action despite the fact that the allied artillery has caused enormous casualties.

Resume Fight on Aisne

All along the Aisne fighting is again in progress. The Germans, under General Von Kluck, after maintaining their positions for three weeks without any demonstration other than artillery fire, suddenly attacked in force. The allied lines had been somewhat weakened here and the force of the German attack was so strong that it was necessary for them to retreat to avoid being overwhelmed.

A lively exchange of artillery fire was in progress today all through the Argonne region.

GERMANS REPORT ADVANCES ALONG THE ENTIRE LINE

BERLIN, Via The Hague, Nov. 4.—Today's official report of operations on the French front again explains that the retirement from the Yser was necessary to prevent the attacking force being drowned, and declares that at every other point on the battle line the Germans are advancing. It is stated that in the vicinity of Ypres the German lines have been advanced three-quarters of a mile and that English prisoners have been taken. The French are declared to be losing very heavily in their efforts to prevent the Germans advancing against Verdun.

You know it all just a little while before you begin to learn something.

GERMANS RESUME OFFENSIVE ALONG PRUSSIAN BORDER

Have Been Heavily Reinforced and General Battle Is Beginning Says Petrograd

LITTLE NEWS OF CAUCASIAN FRONT

Turks Known to Be Massed on Frontier and Fighting Is in Progress

PETROGRAD, Nov. 4.—The Germans who have reorganized behind their east Prussian entrenchments have resumed the offensive, according to reports from the front. As a result another general battle seems beginning as skirmishing is already in progress all along the front. The Germans have been heavily reinforced and have brought up additional cannon from their barrier forts.

Cross the San
The Russian left, which has been operating against the combined Austro-German army in Galicia, continues to advance along the San river. It is stated that a strong force of Russians has already crossed the San south of Przemyśl and is moving westward.

News from the Caucasus, where the Russian army has assumed the offensive against the Turks, is small. It is known that the Turks are massed in force along the frontier and that fighting is in progress.

Close Black Sea Ports

Most of the Black Sea ports have been closed to traffic and all Russian steamers have been ordered to make for the nearest fortified harbor and remain there pending the outcome of a battle between the Russian and Turkish fleets. The Russian fleet is now searching for the Turks. The Goeben has returned to port to repair damages inflicted by shore batteries at Sevastopol.

Cross Turkish Frontier

In an official statement issued today, it is announced that Russian troops have crossed the Turkish frontier in force and have attacked the Turkish outposts, driving the advance guard back in great confusion. Seven Turkish villages have been occupied by the Russians and the losses of the Turks are described as very large.

"UNCLE JOE" GETS SNUB IN HIS HOME

DANVILLE, Ill., Nov. 4.—Rebuffed in his home city by a plurality of only seventy, "Uncle Joe" Cannon today found his plurality probably between 1,500 and 1,800 in the Danville congressional district. He carried Vermilion county by 400 and his vote in Ingham and Kankakee counties was said to have assured his election.

Results By States

MONTPELIER, Vt., Nov. 4.—The progressive vote dwindled almost to nothing and the republicans made a clean sweep from Senator Jacob D. Gallinger down.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Nov. 4.—The republican state ticket made a clean sweep and the republican apparently gained one additional congressman, according to practically complete returns.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 4.—Senator Boies Penrose's plurality will probably reach 150,000, and a republican sweep is indicated everywhere. Brumbaugh, republican, was elected by nearly 165,000.

WILMINGTON, Del., Nov. 4.—A republican congressman at large, Thomas W. Miller, will replace Franklin Brockson, democrat, according to latest returns.

RALEIGH, N. C., Nov. 4.—On incomplete returns, J. J. Britt, republican, has apparently defeated J. M. Gidger, democrat, as representative from the Tenth congressional district. All other nine democratic congressmen were elected.

NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—Whitman's plurality over Gov. Glynn, democrat, in the New York gubernatorial race will reach 133,000, according to practically complete figures today. James S. Wadsworth, republican, was elected senator by 60,222 over James W. Gerard.

HARTFORD, Conn., Nov. 4.—Connecticut swept a democrat congressional contingent of five members into the discard, electing five republicans and the G. O. P. senatorial nominee, Frank P. Brandegee.

DES MOINES, Iowa, Nov. 4.—Republicans swept Iowa clean from Senator A. B. Cummins and Gov. George W. Clarke, who have from 25,000 to 40,000 plurality down through the congressional and state ticket. All eleven congressmen are republican. The progressives made a poor showing.

BOSTON, Nov. 4.—Walsh, democrat, is elected governor by less than 8,000 over his opponent, Samuel W. McCall, republican, but the lieutenant governor is republican and the G. O. P. has gained four congressmen.

DENVER, Col., Nov. 4.—A republican landslide has swept into office George Carlson, republican candidate for governor, and nearly every candidate on the republican state ticket in Colorado. The fight to decide whether the state shall go wet or dry will probably require the official count to settle.

ST. PAUL, Minn., Nov. 4.—Returns today from North and South Dakota all pointed to the defeat of the suffrage amendment in those states.

PHOENIX, Ariz., Nov. 4.—That Arizona has gone dry by "overwhelming pluralities" was the claim early today by officials at the ante-saloon league headquarters, based on incomplete official returns. Governor Hunt, United States Senator Mark Smith, and Representative Carl Hayden, all democrats, have been re-elected by more than 3,000.

CHEYENNE, Wyo., Nov. 4.—John W. Kendrick, progressive-democratic candidate for governor, has been turned to the United States senate. James Whitcomb, rep., has apparently been elected governor over C. J. Smith, democrat. The vote on the prohibition amendment is very close.

CARSON, Nev., Nov. 4.—Early returns today indicated that Gov. Tasker L. Oddie, republican, has been re-elected. Senator Newlands, dem., has probably been re-elected over Samuel Platt, republican.

The result of the vote on the suffrage amendment is still in doubt.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Nov. 4.—Gov. Hiram Johnson, progressive, has been re-elected by a plurality of about 70,000, according to incomplete returns from all sections of the state today. J. D. Fredericks, republican, is second, with Curtin, democrat, third.

In the senatorial race, Phelan, dem., and Knowland, rep., are running neck and neck, and the official count will probably be required to settle it.

The prohibition amendment and the eight hour law have been defeated.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Nov. 4.—The solid democratic representation in congress was broken in yesterday's election, but incomplete returns today leave in doubt whether the republicans gained more than two districts. Senator B. F. Shively was returned to the senate. His plurality may exceed 20,000. Albert J. Beveridge, progressive candidate, ran a poor third.

DETROIT, Mich., Nov. 4.—Only a surprising upset in the figures from the still unreported precincts in the state can accomplish the defeat of Governor Woodbridge N. Ferris, democrat, for re-election.

In the congressional fights, Michigan's only two progressives—Congressman Woodruff and MacDonald, have apparently been defeated by their republican opponents. Congressman Doremus, democrat, was re-elected. Congressman Beakes, democrat, is seriously threatened by Bacon, republican. Remaining districts are all republican.

RENO, Nev., Nov. 4.—The defeat of United States Senator Newlands, by Platt, rep., by a plurality of from 300 to 500, seemed probable on the face of incomplete returns received by noon. E. E. Roberts, rep., for congress, has a plurality of nearly 500 so far. The suffrage constitutional amendment has been probably carried.

BOISE, Idaho, Nov. 4.—The plurality of James H. Brady, republican, for United States senator from Idaho will be between 5,000 and 10,000, according to returns early today. Moses Alexander, democrat, is undoubtedly elected governor by 10,000 plurality.

DALLAS, Texas, Nov. 4.—The initiative and referendum amendment apparently was lost on meager incomplete returns. The entire state and congressional tickets elected were democrats as expected.

PORTLAND, Ore., Nov. 4.—Geo. E. Chamberlain, dem., has been returned to the United States senate. James Whitcomb, rep., has apparently been elected governor over C. J. Smith, democrat. The vote on the prohibition amendment is very close.

EL PASO, Texas, Nov. 4.—The Aguas Calientes peace conference has declared Venustiano Carranza an enemy to the peace of Mexico and in rebellion against Gen. Francisco Villa wildly and shouted "Death to Carranza."

DEMOCRATS RETAIN CONGRESS CONTROL BY SMALL WEDGE

The republicans gained governors in New Mexico, Ohio, Colorado, Connecticut and New Hampshire, where the present executives are democrats, and have a chance to win out in Kansas. But their losses in New York, Connecticut, New Hampshire and Ohio were bitter disappointments in those states as victory had been proclaimed certain. In Massachusetts Governor Walsh pulled through by a narrow squeak, but the republicans got all of the remaining honors.

New Jersey went back to the republican column with a whoop, President Wilson losing his own congressional district.

The present delegation from New Jersey comprises ten democrats and two republicans. The next delegation from the president's own state, where the issue was his policies, will stand democrats five; republicans, seven.

MRS. LUEDKE IS CALLED BY DEATH

Mrs. Bertha Luedke, wife of Edward Luedke, South Third street business man, died last night shortly after 7 o'clock at her home, 224 South Third street. Death was caused by a complication of diseases. Mrs. Luedke had been ill for two weeks.

Mrs. Luedke was born July 6, 1861, in Pomerania, Germany, and came to this country when a girl of eighteen years. She was married on May 18, 1886, in La Crosse, to Edward Luedke.

Surviving her besides her husband are three sisters, Mrs. Emeline Schmoeller of Sturgeon Bay, Wis., and Mrs. Theodore Segler and Mrs. Reinhold Borchmann of La Crosse. Funeral services will be held on Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the home and at 2:30 o'clock at the German Lutheran church, West avenue and Division streets. Rev. Julius T. Gamm will officiate. Burial will take place in Oak Grove cemetery.

MAKE NO RETURNS ON AMENDMENTS

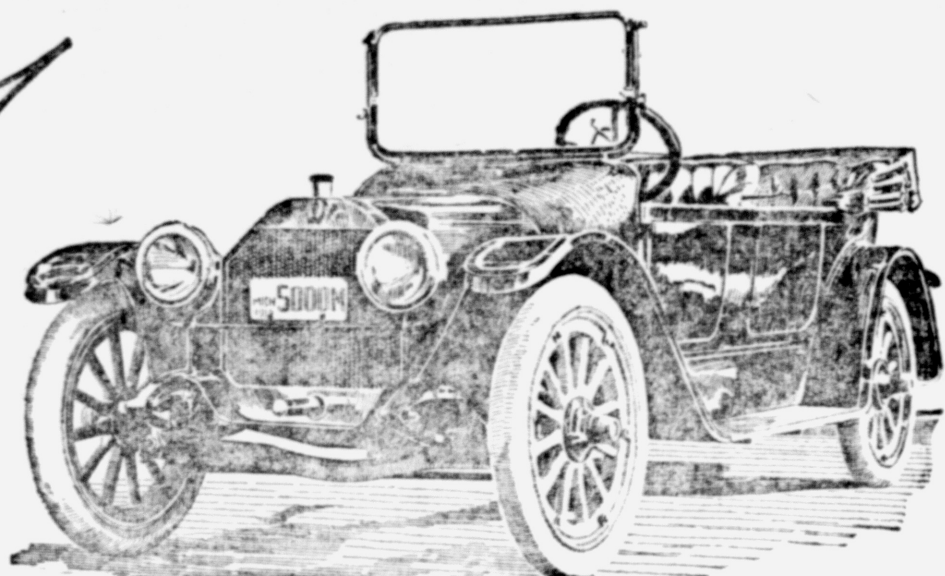

It is claimed in Milwaukee that the ten constitutional amendments have been defeated.

It is impossible to tell at this time how they were disposed of by voters of La Crosse county, no returns having been made on them. The results will be made public when the canvassing board meets next week.

NEW LIGHT FOUR $1285

EVERY LINE PROCLAIMS QUALITY

Here is a new light five-passenger Oldsmobile for the man who does not wish to sacrifice the highest-known quality of refinements, simply because his needs do not call for a car of great size.

All the inherent goodness of the "greatest six cylinder car of America" has been retained in this smaller model. Nowhere else in a light car can you look for such features as Delco starting and lighting system; overhead valve motor, with aluminum silencer and automatic lubrication on rocker-arm bearings; Circassian walnut woodwork; instruments set flush on the dash; cast aluminum foot and running boards; artillery type wheels with hickory spokes; and greater than all these the name Oldsmobile, which, since the beginning of the industry, has stood for everlasting satisfaction.

Come in today or tomorrow and examine this new car.

BULGARS WILL BE RULED BY TURKEY

Have Practical Alliance with Moslems According to Reports in Diplomatic Circles

WASHINGTON, Nov. 4.—Bulgaria's position in the European war will be determined largely by Turkey, according to reports in diplomatic circles today. It was stated, in recalling predictions of A. Rustem Bey, former Turkish ambassador, and one of the influential advisers of the Young Turks party, that Bulgaria and Turkey have consented to an agreement amounting practically to an alliance.

It was also declared that if Italy remains neutral, Turkey, supported by Bulgaria, would have the balance of power in the Balkans, now that Serbia is already participating in the war.

BIG ENTHUSIASM FOR SPARTA GAME

Biggest Mass-meeting on Record Stirrs Student Body at High School

WILL DECORATE TOWN FOR EVENT

Will Equal Sparta Spirit Which Is Bringing Two Bands on Special Train

The biggest and most enthusiastic mass meeting ever seen at the La Crosse high school was held this morning. Never before has such spirit been manifested as that shown at the meeting which was attended by practically every student of the school. If the team loses in the game with Sparta on Saturday, which the students are bound they will not, it will not be because of a lack of support.

A short talk by Superintendent L. P. Benzet, recalling the defeat of a year ago, aroused the students to the highest pitch. Cheers for "Tubby" Keeler, Eddie Stavrum, "Mike" Hayes and "Boots" Weimar shook the building. The work of the La Crosse boys in the great Wisconsin eleven is not forgotten.

Fay Talks Briefly
Captain John Fay, leader of the gridiron stars of the local school, talked briefly on the chances of the team for the state title. His talk was optimistic but did not betray over confidence. He explained to his hearers that in the Sparta game La Crosse will meet worthy opponents. Previous scores of the year must have no bearing on the game, he said.

When Coach Horne rose to his feet following the address by Captain Fay, the assembly broke into pandemonium that rocked the entire building. Fully five minutes elapsed before the cheering subsided. His speech was one of exhortation to the student body of the school for support of the team.

John Robinson, cheer leader, announced that Myron Locke, an alumnus, will lead a number of the cheers on Saturday.

Parade Friday Night
Preparations are going on now for a monster parade to be held on the downtown streets Friday night. More than three hundred students have pledged themselves to participate. A parade will also be staged before the game Saturday afternoon.

The stores of the city will be decorated for the occasion in red and black, the high school colors. Leaders of the boosting movement are trying to excel Madison on the eve of a big game.

That Sparta will be at the game in a body is almost certain. A block of three hundred seats has been ordered already.

Spartans will be accompanied on their special train by two bands of twenty-seven pieces each. It is expected that more than five hundred will attend the game from Sparta. A special train will bring the Vaughn rooters here.

TURKS REPORTED TO HAVE SUNK RUSS WARSHIP

LONDON, Nov. 4.—News agency dispatches from Sofia declare that the Turkish fleet in the Black sea has sunk the Russian battleship Sinoop. There is no confirmation in official circles here.

The Sinoop was built in 1887, was 339 feet long with a displacement of 11,230 tons. She carried a crew of 656 men and was armed with six 12-inch, seven 6-inch and four 3-pounder guns. She has long been considered obsolete and the latest naval lists do not carry her as in commission.

CALIFORNIA VOTES AGAINST BOXING

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Nov. 4.—Early returns today indicated that the amendment forbidding boxing in California has carried. Late election returns indicate that the state has gone "wet" by a vote of 2 to 1.

Changed His Mind. A stern father who had repeatedly told a young man who was paying his addresses to his daughter not to visit the house again without his permission, which he never intended to give, was surprised when he answered the doorbell late one evening to see the young man. "Sir," said he, in anger, "didn't I tell you not to call again, eh, sir?" "Yes," said the young man, "I know but I didn't call to see your daughter. I came on behalf of our firm about that little bill."

"Oh—er—er"—stammered the stern father, "call again, will you?"—Exchange. His Guess. "What makes you so bad a boy?" asked the fond mother of her son, who is eight years old. "I guess I must have inherited it." was the unconcerned reply.—Indianapolis News.

Republicans Elect Entire State Ticket; Sulzer as Prohibitionist Leads the Progressive Nominee

NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—As the election returns became complete today they emphasized the sweeping republican victory in New York state. With the collapse of the progressive movement, the members of that party flocked back to their "first love," and again the republicans dominated the state situation. Summarized yesterday's results show:

Charles S. Whitman, republican, defeated Martin H. Glynn for governor, by a plurality which, with a large number of election districts estimated, is placed at 131,435. James W. Wadsworth, republican, defeated James W. Gerard for senator by 81,390; republicans carry both branches of the legislature overwhelmingly, the senate standing, republican 34; democrats 17; assembly, republicans 99; democrats 51. Republicans elected entire ticket for minor state offices and an overwhelming majority of the delegates to the constitutional convention which will write the state's new constitution; republicans reduce the democratic congressional representation in the state from 31 to 19. William Sulzer, impeached and removed as governor by Tammany hall, ran ahead of Frederick M. Davenport, the progressive candidate for governor. Sulzer, running as the prohibition candidate with the American party endorsement, polled 65,000 votes against 40,000 for Davenport. Two years ago Oscar Straus, progressive candidate for governor, polled 293,183 votes.

PROHIBITION HAS VARYING SUCCESS

Beaten in Ohio and California; Carries Arizona; Doubtful in Three Other States

CHICAGO, Nov. 4.—Best available returns today show that prohibition was decisively defeated in Ohio and California, but that the prohibition amendment has carried in Arizona. In Colorado the result is in doubt, with the drys claiming that their plurality in the state outside of Denver will carry the state dry. Oregon and Washington are in doubt, with the early returns indicating a close result.

SOCIALIST GOTHAM REPRESENTATIVE

Meyer London Wins by 1,000 in Twelfth Congressional District of New York

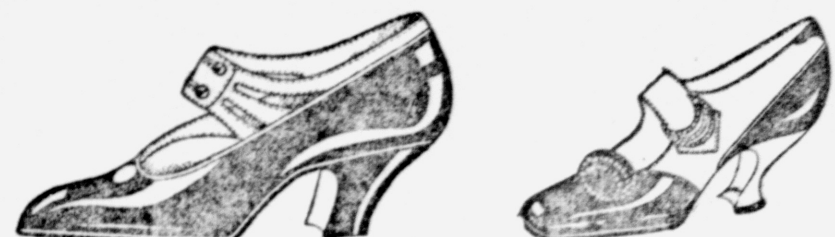

NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—New York has joined Wisconsin in having a socialist representative in congress. Meyer London has been elected to the house of representatives from the Twelfth congressional district and is the first socialist to be elected to such an office in the history of New York state.

Henry M. Goldhogie, democratic incumbent, this afternoon conceded his defeat by London, whose majority will be about 1,150. The east side went wild when it became apparent that London was certain of election. Three different processions, each headed by a band, marched through the streets to London's home.

G. O. P. LANDSLIDE MARKED IN OHIO

Governor, State Ticket and Ten Congressmen of Republican Party Are Elected

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 4.—Ohio was struck by an old-fashioned republican landslide in yesterday's election. The republicans elected Frank B. Willis of Hardin county, governor of Ohio by a plurality that is estimated from 8,000 to 15,000, over Governor James M. Cox.

Gov. Cox at 8 a. m. sent his congratulations to Governor-elect Willis. Cox observed his defeat was brought about by Hamilton county (Cincinnati) where the vote went heavily against him. Cleveland supported Cox by at least 18,000. The republicans elected Warren G. Harding of Marion, United States senator over Attorney General T. S. Hogan, by about 75,000, and elected the entire state ticket and secured control of both branches of the general assembly.

The republicans captured at least ten of the 22 Ohio congressional seats as compared with three republicans and 19 democrats in the present congress. Nicholas Longworth, son-in-law of Col. Roosevelt, was returned in the first district over Stanley Bowdler, the present incumbent.

Taxation, woman suffrage and state-wide prohibition amendments to the state constitution, were all defeated, taxation by the largest vote.

NOSTRILS AND HEAD STOPPED UP FROM COLD? TRY MY CATARRH BALM

Instantly Clears Air Passages; You Breathe Freely; Dull Headache Goes; Nasty Catarrhal Discharge Stops.

Try "Ely's Cream Balm." Get a small bottle anyway, just to try it—Apply a little in the nostrils and instantly your clogged nose and stopped-up air passages of the head will open; you will breathe freely; dullness and headache disappear. By morning the catarrh, cold-in-head or catarrhal sore throat will be gone. End such misery now! Get the small bottle of "Ely's Cream Balm" at any drug store. This sweet, fragrant balm dissolves by the heat of the nostrils; penetrates and heals the inflamed, swollen membrane which lines the nose, head and throat; clears the air passages; stops nasty discharges and a feeling of cleansing, soothing relief comes immediately.

Don't lay awake tonight struggling for breath, with head stuffed; nostrils closed, hawking and blowing. Catarrh or a cold, with its running nose, foul mucous dropping into the throat, and raw dryness is distressing but truly needless.

Put your faith—just once—in "Ely's Cream Balm" and your cold or catarrh will surely disappear.

The Title "King."

The sovereign title of king has generally been supposed to be derived from the old British word "gynning," signifying "wise." But the Hebrew term "rosch" is doubtless the root of all the present titles denoting kingly power, including the Punic "resch," the Scythian "reix," the Latin "rex," the Spanish "rey" and the French "roi." The German nations styled their monarch according to their different dialects—"konig," "kuning," "koning," "king."

SERB LEAVES PORTE

SOFIA, Nov. 4.—The Serbian minister has been recalled from Constantinople and it is stated that a state of war exists between Serbia and Turkey although there has been no formal exchange of war declarations.

Complimentary Agitators.

Both John Bright and Richard Cobden, colleagues and collaborators in the successful action against the corn laws, knew what they wanted and asked for it, but with a difference. Bright's eloquence, as his latest biographer, Mr. George Macaulay Trevelyan, impressively shows, was eager and pugnacious. Cobden's expositions were "as passionless as a proposition of Euclid."

Bright himself told how neatly the two styles dovetailed when they were stumped together. After Cobden had made his lucid economic argument: "I used to get up," Bright said, "and do a little prizefighting."—Youth's Companion.

Corn was helped by wheat and gained 1 1/4 to 1 1/2c. Oats felt the upward pull of wheat and advanced 5/8 to 3/4c. Reports that the stock yards may be closed in the campaign against the foot and mouth disease, boosted provision prices.

DES MOINES, Iowa, Nov. 4.—The annual meeting of the Iowa State Teachers' association opened at the Coliseum today, and will continue for four days. Among the prominent educators who will address the 5,000 teachers are Dr. David Snedden, commissioner of education, Boston, Mass.; Mrs. Cora Wilson Stewart of Morehead, Ky., president of the Kentucky Literacy commission; Dr. Henry Suzzalo of Columbia university, Dr. J. MEALS FOR VOTERS

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 4.—Politicians who gave voters cigars, auto rides and pre-election drinks to win favor found their methods emulated yesterday when a small army of men visited headquarters of the suffrage workers and were presented with checks on nearby luncheries entitling them to free meals.

APPEALS TO WILSON TO SAVE BRITISH INVALIDS FROM GERMAN PRISON

LONDON, Nov. 4.—The following cable message from Robert Armstrong Yerburgh, unionist member of parliament, from Chester, has been sent to the United States with a request that it be transmitted to President Wilson at Washington.

President Woodrow Wilson, Washington, D. C.: Your excellency is appealed to on behalf of sixteen British subjects, medical patients at Bad Nauheim, who have been detained there since the outbreak of the war. They are accompanied by their women folk. Because of recent events they are now threatened with imprisonment in a fortress.

"I beg that you will use your good offices to secure their release. I myself have just returned from Nauenheim after nine weeks' detention. I was released through the friendly intervention of Vice Consul lives of the United States consular service, stationed at Frankfurt. I have personal knowledge that these persons are invalids, a matter that is easily proven by the medical certificates filed in their behalf with the authorities. They are utterly unfit for military service and their detention already has greatly weakened most of them. I am convinced that confinement in a fortress would prove fatal to some, at least of them.

"Commending their extremely serious situation to your excellency's good offices, I remain,

ROBERT YERBURGH, M. P.

The above cable was today delivered to the White house in accordance with Mr. Yerburgh's request.

TRIAL BEGINS FOR DOUBLE MURDER

MOUNDSVILLE, W. Va., Nov. 4.—For "getting into a hell of a mess over an old fishnet and starting a young graveyard down the river" Al Moore is to be tried for his life in the Marshall County circuit court here today. Moore, on the afternoon of July 1, killed William Arn and Harry L. Purdy, two Moundsville young men, whom he accused of having stolen a fishnet from him a year before.

He was about to shoot Roy McGill, who stood nearby pleading for the lives of Arn and Purdy, when McGill's wife threw herself in front of her husband and saved him. Moore then went to a "speakeasy" and was arrested when he left shortly after midnight, by a posse that lay in wait for him.

Insanity will probably be the defense. Moore has joked with fellow prisoners since his arrest and referred to the shootings as "starting a graveyard."

SPARTA CONTEST WILL SET RECORD

Largest Crowd Ever in Attendance at a Local Game Expected to Turn Out for the Big Tilt

With but three days left in which to train for the Sparta game at normal field on Saturday, Coach Horne finds his men in fair shape for the encounter. With but few exceptions, the local boys emerged from the Wisconsin game whole. What bruises there were will not keep any of the men from the game.

Reports from Sparta that Almon, the star quarterback of the Sparta team, last year's champions, wrenched his leg in practice, has boosted high school stock considerably. Horne is not at all certain, however, but that the story is a "bear" yarn usually emanated at this stage of the game.

Hard Drill and Scrimmage with the scrubs for the three days between now and Saturday is mapped out for the red and black. There will be no let-up in the work for the big game of the year. With last year's defeat still ringing in their ears, Horne's men are due to fight with a vengeance.

The big new normal field in the Interstate fair grounds will be taxed to its capacity at the game on Saturday. The largest crowd that ever attended a football game is expected to be present at the game.

BOSTON TO HAVE ANIMAL HOSPITAL

BOSTON, Nov. 4.—With the opening of the Angel Memorial hospital next month the Massachusetts S. P. C. A. will give Boston the most up-to-date hospital in the world for taking care of the ill of every sort of animal from bird to horse, declared local veterinarians today. The building adjoins the Harvard Medical school.

Examinations, operating and "soak" rooms—even to ward rooms for the patients—have been provided. Apartments have also been laid out for the care and attention of smaller animals and birds. In fact the hospital will have all the conveniences of the modern "human-kind" hospital.

LOCAL BOWLERS RUN BIG SCORES

Will Ott, Alley Veteran, Rolls 196 in First Game of Year; Thompson Averages 200 for 5 Games

Will Ott, one of the oldest bowlers in La Crosse, made his initial appearance of the year on the Malloy alleys, rolling up a score of 196 in his first game. The game was the first rolled by Ott since last spring.

Theodore Thompson made a remarkable average of 200 1-5 in five games rolled at the Malloy alleys last night. His best single count was 231 and his lowest 174. He rolled a total of 2001 for the games. His scores were 214, 200, 231, 174 and 182. Don Cameron in one of his first games of the year, broke into the select circle with a count of 210.

The Gunds defeated the Lotus Club in two out of three games, the scores of all the games being close. Paulson rolled high single score for the evening with a mark of 193. Affeldt was high man for the evening with a total of 439 for the three games.

SAGE TEA TURNS GRAY HAIR DARK

It's Grandmother's Recipe to Bring Back Color and Lustre to Hair.

That beautiful, even shade of dark, glossy hair can only be had by brewing a mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Your hair is your charm. It makes or mars the face. When it fades, turns gray, straggled and looks dry, wispy and scraggy, just an application or two of Sage and Sulphur enhances its appearance a hundredfold.

Don't bother to prepare the tonic; you can get from any drug store a 50-cent bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," ready to use. This can always be depended upon to bring back the natural color, thickness and lustre of your hair and remove dandruff, stop scalp itching and falling hair.

Everybody uses "Wyeth's" Sage and Sulphur because it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied. You simply dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through the hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair has disappeared, and after another application it becomes beautifully dark and shines glossy, lustrous and abundant.

PRESS-AGENTS BATTLE WITH TYPEWRITERS IN EUROPE'S ARMAGEDDON

BY ALICE ROHE
(United Press Staff Correspondent.)
ROME, Oct. 11, by Mail to New York.—Press agents for warring nations whose activities would be credited to the strenuous publicity promoters of rival stage celebrities, introduce an incredible element of humor into the great European war tragedy.

For years Serbia has been a nation despised by the greatest powers. Austria has regarded her with contempt and hate. And the bitter blow Austro-Hungarian pride suffered after the battle of Sabatz, when the Serbian press agents became busy, resulted in fresh gnashing of Austrian teeth.

Following this encounter in which the despised Serbians were triumphant, the Serbian press agent, adding insult to injury, sent forth the story that the famous Austrian regimental band had been captured in the battle and had been forced to play Serbian national airs in the cafes at Nish.

No sooner had the humiliating account gained publicity than the Austrian press agent sat down at his desk in Vienna and launched forth a denial of the story. He declared it was only an invention of the Serbs who had in reality dressed up one of their own bands in Austrian uniforms and marched them from cafe to cafe, in order to bring ridicule and humiliation upon their superior enemy.

The Austrian press agent was not content, however, with the denial and shortly after the publication of the captured regimental band story, the press department of Francis Joseph's dual kingdom sent out a report worthy of an ingenious theatrical publicity promoter.

The great Serbian poet, Wukitchitch, said the Austrian press agent, had been captured and was being held in prison at Vienna. So impressed with the heroic exploits of the Austrians, and with their national nobility of character had Wukitchitch become that he could not restrain himself from bursting into song, praising Austria's valor.

The story of the imprisoned Serbian poet inditing poems to the enemy had no sooner been released from the mimeograph, than a wild cry arose from the Serbian press head offices at Nish.

"There is no Serbian poet named Wukitchitch," said the Serbs. "The Austrians have merely invented him."

Thus while the whole of Europe is involved with tragic consequences in the bickerings of Austria and Serbia, the busy press agents of the two nations are carrying on their petty warfare of words.

JUNEAU SURE OF WIN OVER GOPHER

Work of Wisconsin Team Against Chicago Convincts Experts Badgers Will Beat Minnesota

MADISON, Wis., Nov. 4.—Taking advantage of perfect weather conditions the Badger coaching staff sent their men through a double session of practice at Camp Randall on election day. The men have recovered from the effects of last Saturday's battle and are in good shape for a hard two weeks' pull in preparation for the Minnesota game. McMaster, Krenz and Mucks were the only men who showed the effect of the battering received in the Chicago game. It is probable that none of these three men will be used in scrimmage for a few days.

The experts are united in their praise of Wisconsin's work against Chicago last Saturday afternoon. The Maroon players themselves admit that the Badgers played perfect football, and it is generally conceded that the victory should have gone to Coach Juneau's men.

The confidence inspired in the inexperienced Wisconsin eleven by reason of their showing against Coach Stagg's men is bound to help. With more than a full week ahead of them for practice before the Minnesota game, the men are expected to improve materially and a Wisconsin victory on Nov. 14 seems to be assured.

ALMON WRENCHES LEG IN PRACTICE

Sparta Quarterback Out of Game Indefinitely as Result of Accident in Practice Last Night

SPARTA, Wis., Nov. 4.—(Special.)—On the eve of the big game of the year with La Crosse High school, Spencer Almon, star quarterback of the Sparta High school eleven, is out of the game. Almon wrenched his knee in practice last night and will in all probability not be able to play for more than a week. He will be unable to play in the game at La Crosse on Saturday. Harvey Hoffman has taken his place at the pivot position.

Two full bands of twenty-seven pieces each will accompany the Sparta team to La Crosse on Saturday. The West Salem band and the Sparta concert band will invade the Gateway City with their gridiron heroes.

Spirit in football circles was never higher. "La Crosse or Die" is the slogan of the school just at present. Half of the students of the school besides a number of towns people will be at the game on Saturday.

GLASS OF SALTS CLEANS KIDNEYS

If your Back hurts or Bladder bothers you, drink lots of water.

When your kidneys hurt and your back feels sore, don't get scared and proceed to load your stomach with a lot of drugs that excite the kidneys and irritate the entire urinary tract. Keep your kidneys clean like you keep your bowels clean, by flushing them with a mild, harmless salts which removes the body's urinous waste and stimulates them to their normal activity. The function of the kidneys is to filter the blood. In 24 hours they strain from it 500 grains of acid and waste, so we can readily understand the vital importance of keeping the kidneys active. Drink lots of water—you can't drink too much; also get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast, each morning for a few days and your kidneys will act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate clogged kidneys; also to neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer is a source of irritation, thus ending bladder weakness. Jad Salts is inexpensive; cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which every one should take now and then to keep their kidneys clean and active. Try this, also keep up the water drinking, and no doubt you will wonder what became of your kidney trouble and backache. Chas. A. Beyschlag, Druggist, 503 Main street.
